featuring professional clinician

Freya Ford Walton

26 year-old Freya (Ford) Walton is an Idaho native who currently resides in Post Falls, Idaho. Freya is a 2007 graduate of Washington State University and is currently the District Sales Manager for SCAFCO Grain Systems Company; she enjoys designing western clothing and accessories on the side. Freya's rodeo career includes holding the titles of Miss Bonner County Rodeo, Miss Pro-West and Miss Rodeo Idaho. In 2009 she was named First Runner-Up to the title of Miss Rodeo America 2010.

ON DECK

Presentations by clinicians Stephanie Hall, Jaimi Wilkinson, and Jim Haynes will focus on applications, photogenics, speeches, impromptu questions, interviews, horsemanship, rodeo knowledge, appearance, modeling, personality, and animal welfare. Participants will also have an opportunity to buy and sell rodeo queen clothing. Additionally a Judges Certification session will be offered, which includes a section on coordinating a rodeo queen pageant!

Prepare to be inspired, have fun & take away the top skills to be a professional rodeo queen.
